*State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor*

Whereas, Donald Willey knows the great worth and beauty of music in our everyday lives; and,

Whereas, Donald has been a music man all of his life, and after over a half century of performing at weddings, dances, and concerts, he no doubt attributes some of his success in life to the soothing influence of song; and,

Whereas, Throughout the years, Donald has given so much of himself to the Dakota area, and it seems only right that this maker of melodies be rewarded and recognized for his fine achievement in the arts; and,

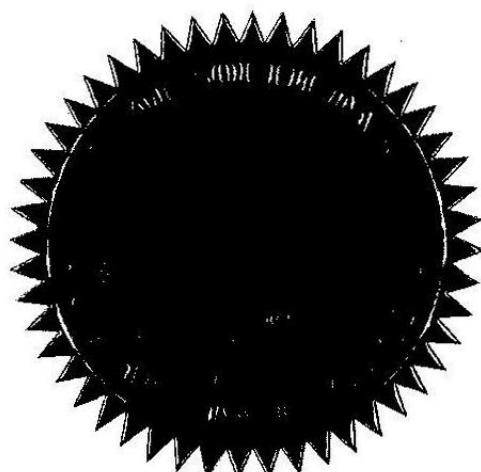

Whereas, For many years, Donald has shared his achievements in the field of music that gives comfort, solace, and joy to all that hear him play, and it is impossible to estimate how many lives he has touched by sharing with us his special gift; therefore, it is for this reason that Donald deserves this special praise and attention; and,

Whereas, Donald Willey has been chosen by the Dakota Musician's Association to be inducted into the Dakota Musician's Hall of Fame:

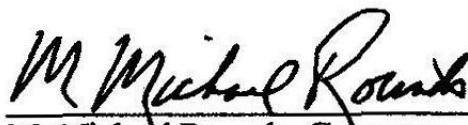

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 14, 2003, as
